No.2886-50. GOVERNMENT HOUSE
Guindy, 3rd November 1950.

Dear Mr.Srinivasan,

His Excellency the Governor and Her Highness the Maharani Saheba of Bhavnagar are visiting Mercara for four days this month and will be passing through Bangalore both on the forward and return journeys. I am desired by His Excellency the Governor to write to you and find out whether it would be convenient to the Government of Mysore to put up the party at the Residency Guest House at Bangalore.

The party, besides His Excellency and Her Highness, will include two Staff Officers, two members of office staff and about a dozen servants. They will arrive Bangalore Cantonment by the Mail Train at 0640 hrs. on the 16th November and leave for Mercara by road (via Mysore) on the 17th November. They will return to Bangalore on the 21st November and leave the same night for Madras by the Mail Train from Bangalore Cantt. at 2129 hrs.

We will be bringing two Government House cars and no state cars will therefore be required for the trip from Bangalore to Mercara and back. Could you, however, kindly arrange for a large bus to convey the servants and luggage from Bangalore to Mercara on the 17th November and back on the 21st November?

With best wishes.

Yours sincerely,

(Major C.S.Reddy)
